EMSP 2016 Conference: Top 10 Highlights

EMSP was joined by more than 150 multiple sclerosis stakeholders at our 2016 Spring Conference organised on 17 and 18 May in Oslo, Norway. Read the event report here.

MS advocates at European Youth Event: Ready to work

EMSP's Young People's Group was represented at the recent EYE 2016 event in Strasbourg, France. The young MS advocates participated in a workshop focused on employment. Read more.

worldMSday
25 MAY 2016

WMSD 2016: Engaging EMSP's online community

In the run-up to World MS Day 2016, EMSP held three Twitter chats focused on the main aspects of achieving independence while living with multiple sclerosis. Read more.

Ireland: Launch of EMSP's Employment Toolkit

MS Ireland are set to launch an adapted version of EMSP's Employment Toolkit for the benefit of those living with multiple sclerosis (MS) at national level. Read more.

Call for participants to LSE study on MS patients and carers

The London School of Economics is inviting MS patients, carers and clinicians to contribute to its ongoing study - IMPRESS - which explores the social economic costs, quality of life and experience in individuals with MS and their carers. Read more.