

Ready for Work: The case for workability

We are glad to announce the launch of our new employment-focused project, Ready for Work. This is a joint-initiative with The Work Foundation. Together, we plan to promote the topic of work high on the common agenda of patients and clinicians. Read more.

Paving the Path to Participation: A Toolkit for Employers

In the wake of our Employment Pact for people with MS we have launched a Toolkit for employers. This document is aimed at building more flexibility into businesses. Read

EMSP 2016 Networking Dinner

Joined by 50 of our closest members and partners, we gathered on 16 February in Brussels to look back at our main 2015 achievements and share proposals for the road ahead. Read more.

Italy: Five years of MS blogging

Mainstream MS blogging in Italy has marked an important milestone: the MS blog set up by a group of young MSers has recently celebrated five years since its first post. Read more.

EPF: Call for patients with cross-border healthcare experience

EMSP's partners at the European Patients Forum (EPF) are looking for input from patients who have accessed treatment across borders. Read more.