

EMSP repository of MS relevant health policy initiatives 2011-2016

MS in the 21st Century

- Prof. Peter Rieckman(Neurologist) – funded by Merck

MS Calls for action – Pan –European multi-stakeholder colloquia

- Prof. Patrick Vermersch (Neurologist) – funded by Teva

EMA Guidelines on clinical investigation of medicinal products for the treatment of MS

- EMA and public consultation

MS Nurse PRO

- Multiple Sclerosis-Nurse Empowering EDucation (MS-NEED): EMSP, multi-sponsored

Recommendations on rehabilitation services for persons with MS in Europe

- EMSP, funded by European Union 2012 Work Programme

MS health policy initiatives 2011-2016

Consensus Statement – Evaluation of new & existing therapies for paediatric MS in Europe

- International Pediatric Multiple Sclerosis Study Group (IPMSSG)

The State of MS (part I)- Identifying factors which restrict access to MS treatments in Europe

- State of MS Consortium, sponsored by Biogen

The State of MS (part II) – A global study among MS patients and neurologists

- Nielsen and State of MS Consortium, sponsored by Biogen

The State of MS – Cost of disease

- London School of Economics, sponsored by Roche

Multiple Sclerosis Consumer Survey

- Galliard Healthcare Communications, sponsored by Novartis

MS health policy initiatives 2011-2016

BRAIN HEALTH – TIME MATTERS IN MULTIPLE SCLEROSIS

- Prof. Gavin Giovannoni, multi-sponsored

OFF-LABEL - OFF-LABEL USE OF MEDICINAL PRODUCTS IN THE EU

- EUROPEAN PUBLIC HEALTH ALLIANCE , sponsored by EU

New Clinical Guidelines on Multiple Sclerosis

- ECTRIMS + EAN

*Do any of these projects overlap with our proposed activities?

**Do any gaps need action? If so, do they chime with the objectives of this group?

MS health policy initiatives 2011-2016

*This repository will be shared with the European Charcot Foundation (ECF)

**EMSP and ECF will work together on a potential multi-sponsored summary of the main findings and recommendations from MS policy initiatives recorded between 2011 and 2016.