Elisabeth Kasilingam appointed as EMSP Managing Director

The European Multiple Sclerosis Platform (EMSP) is delighted to announce the appointment of Elisabeth Kasilingam as its Managing Director, effective 15 September 2016. Read more.

EMSP at ECTRIMS 2016: Delivering for MS communities

EMSP was present between 14 and 17 September at the Congress of the European Committee for Treatment and Research in Multiple Sclerosis (ECTRIMS 2016), held in London, UK. Read more.

MS Disclosure: Dropping the Mask videos launched

EMSP is glad to announce the launch of two inspiring advocacy videos, part of our Dropping the Mask campaign in support on MS disclosure. Find the videos here.
ECTRIMS 2016: Upcoming MS treatments
The ECTRIMS 2016 Congress offered encouraging treatment news for patients with relapsing and secondary progressive MS. Read more.

Believe & Achieve: Successful stories of MS employment
EMSP recently launched a website and published a digital brochure telling the stories of young people with MS involved in our Believe & Achieve project. Visit the website and read the brochure.

Patient survey on adverse drug reactions
EMSP is supporting a survey from our partners at Rare Diseases Europe (EURORDIS) aimed at reporting side-effects of medicines through an app for mobile phones and tablets. Read more.

Oceans of Hope reloaded: registrations open
After completing the world circumnavigation with crews of people living with MS, Oceans of Hope takes on a new adventure: sailing along the Dalmatian coast. Read more.